

Home

JNL Climate Control, Inc. is a full service heating and air conditioning company. We have been servicing the northwest suburbs since 1991.

We offer residential and commercial sales, service and installation on furnaces, air conditioners, thermostats, heat pumps, air purification systems, humidification systems, water heaters and rooftop heating and cooling equipment and custom sheet metal work.

We offer:

Service and Installation (Residential and Commercial)

- 24 Hour emergency service, 7 -days a week, 365 days a year
- Factory-trained technicians qualified to solve any heating or cooling issues that may arise
- A complete inventory of parts for on the spot repairs
- A professional answering service and dispatching for after hour calls
- Experienced craftsmen that perform all installations
- Quick, dependable service with an understanding of our customer's needs
- Quality work with your satisfaction guaranteed one hundred percent
- A family owned and operated local company
- Fully licensed and insured
- References available upon request